

Name: _____

Date: _____

Score: ____ / 56

Exercise 1 — True or False? (8 points)

Read each statement. Write True or False.

1. "Will" is always used for future plans made in advance.

Answer: _____

2. "Would rather" expresses a preference for one thing over another.

Answer: _____

3. "Needn't" and "mustn't" have the same meaning.

Answer: _____

4. "Shall" is typically used with I and we in British English.

Answer: _____

5. "Won't" is used to express a certain negative or a refusal.

Answer: _____

6. "Need to" means something is necessary.

Answer: _____

7. "Would you mind helping me?" is an example of a spontaneous decision.

Answer: _____

8. "I'll call you back" is an example of a spontaneous decision or promise.

Answer: _____

Exercise 2 — Multiple Choice (8 points)

Choose the correct modal verb. Circle your answer.

1. The office ____ be closed next Friday for the bank holiday.

(will / would / shall)

2. ____ I help you carry those to the car?

(Shall / Will / Would)

3. I ____ rather not share that information over the phone.

(would / will / shall)

4. All applicants ____ to provide proof of address.

(need / needn't / would)

5. He ____ back down — he feels very strongly about this.

(won't / wouldn't / needn't)

6. You ___ wait — I can see you immediately.
(needn't / won't / wouldn't)
7. ___ you prefer to sit inside or on the terrace?
(Would / Shall / Will)
8. ___ we compare both options before making a final decision?
(Shall / Will / Would)

Exercise 3 — Matching (8 points)

Match each sentence (1–8) to the correct meaning (A–H). Write the letter.

Sentences	Meanings
1. The new timetable will come into effect on Monday. ___	A. An offer to do something helpful on someone's behalf.
2. Shall I take a note of that for you? ___	B. A future fact the speaker is certain about.
3. I would prefer to receive the report in PDF format. ___	C. The application is required — it cannot be skipped.
4. You need to apply for the permit at least two weeks in advance. ___	D. A polite question about someone's willingness to do something.
5. She won't share the password with anyone outside the team. ___	E. Collecting it is not required — there is another option.
6. You needn't collect the parcel — we can arrange redelivery. ___	F. A preference expressed in a polite, formal way.
7. Would you be willing to chair the next meeting? ___	G. A firm decision — the speaker is certain this will not happen.
8. Shall we go over the figures one more time? ___	H. A suggestion to the group to do something together.

Exercise 4 — Gap Fill (8 points)

Choose the correct modal verb from the brackets.

1. The package ___ arrive tomorrow — they confirmed dispatch today.
(will / would / shall)
2. ___ I arrange a cab for you after the event?
(Shall / Will / Would)
3. She ___ rather not be named in the article.
(would / will / shall)
4. You ___ to log out of the system each time you leave your desk.
(need / needn't / would)
5. The committee ___ approve the proposal in its current form.
(won't / needn't / wouldn't)
6. You ___ iron that shirt — it looks fine as it is.
(needn't / won't / wouldn't)
7. ___ you mind repeating the last point a little more slowly?
(Would / Shall / Will)
8. There ___ be a full update at tomorrow's briefing.

(will / would / needn't)

Exercise 5 — Word Order (8 points)

Put the words in the correct order to make a sentence.

1. two / for / run / will / conference / The / days

2. note / Shall / of / a / take / I / that

3. private / in / discuss / this / I / would / rather

4. sign / You / to / the / read / before / need / terms / you

5. sources / reveal / his / won't / He

6. explain / needn't / understand / You / — I / fully

7. call / Would / for / you / available / be / tomorrow / a

8. vote / we / put / a / to / Shall / this

Exercise 6 — Word Sort (8 points)

Read each sentence carefully. Write it in the correct column.

Word bank: The results ____ be published at the end of the month. | She ____ give up — she's far too determined. | Interest rates ____ remain stable for the rest of the year. | I ____ love the opportunity to visit that part of the world. | ____ you be comfortable presenting to the full board? | I ____ rather not make any commitments until I've spoken to my team. | ____ I translate that section for you? | ____ we break for lunch now and reconvene at two? | ____ I arrange for someone to show you around the building? | You ____ to set a new password on your first login. | You ____ bring a printed copy — a digital version is fine. | All new starters ____ to complete the induction before week two.

Prediction / Certain future	Hypothetical / Polite	Offer / Suggestion	Necessary / Not necessary
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

Exercise 7 — Complete the Conversation (8 points)

Choose the correct modal verb from the brackets.

A: We need someone to chair the review session. ____ you be willing to take that on?

(would / will / shall)

B: I'm happy to. When ____ it take place?

(will / would / shall)

A: Probably next Thursday. ____ I put it in the diary now?

(Shall / Will / Would)

B: Please do. Do attendees ____ to prepare anything in advance?

(need / needn't / would)

A: They ____ prepare anything formal — just bring their thoughts.

(needn't / won't / wouldn't)

B: Good. And I ____ rather keep the session to an hour if possible.

(would / will / shall)

Exercise 1 — True or False?

1. "Will" is always used for future plans made in advance.
✓ False
2. "Would rather" expresses a preference for one thing over another.
✓ True
3. "Needn't" and "mustn't" have the same meaning.
✓ False
4. "Shall" is typically used with I and we in British English.
✓ True
5. "Won't" is used to express a certain negative or a refusal.
✓ True
6. "Need to" means something is necessary.
✓ True
7. "Would you mind helping me?" is an example of a spontaneous decision.
✓ False
8. "I'll call you back" is an example of a spontaneous decision or promise.
✓ True

Exercise 2 — Multiple Choice

1. The office ____ be closed next Friday for the bank holiday.
✓ will
2. ____ I help you carry those to the car?
✓ Shall
3. I ____ rather not share that information over the phone.
✓ would
4. All applicants ____ to provide proof of address.
✓ need
5. He ____ back down — he feels very strongly about this.
✓ won't
6. You ____ wait — I can see you immediately.

✓ needn't

7. ___ you prefer to sit inside or on the terrace?

✓ Would

8. ___ we compare both options before making a final decision?

✓ Shall

Exercise 3 — Matching

1. The new timetable will come into effect on Monday.

✓ B — A future fact the speaker is certain about.

2. Shall I take a note of that for you?

✓ A — An offer to do something helpful on someone's behalf.

3. I would prefer to receive the report in PDF format.

✓ F — A preference expressed in a polite, formal way.

4. You need to apply for the permit at least two weeks in advance.

✓ C — The application is required — it cannot be skipped.

5. She won't share the password with anyone outside the team.

✓ G — A firm decision — the speaker is certain this will not happen.

6. You needn't collect the parcel — we can arrange redelivery.

✓ E — Collecting it is not required — there is another option.

7. Would you be willing to chair the next meeting?

✓ D — A polite question about someone's willingness to do something.

8. Shall we go over the figures one more time?

✓ H — A suggestion to the group to do something together.

Exercise 4 — Gap Fill

1. The package ___ arrive tomorrow — they confirmed dispatch today.

✓ will

2. ___ I arrange a cab for you after the event?

✓ Shall

3. She ___ rather not be named in the article.

✓ would

4. You ___ to log out of the system each time you leave your desk.

✓ need

5. The committee ___ approve the proposal in its current form.

✓ won't

6. You ___ iron that shirt — it looks fine as it is.

✓ needn't

7. ___ you mind repeating the last point a little more slowly?

✓ Would

8. There ___ be a full update at tomorrow's briefing.

✓ will

Exercise 5 — Word Order

1. ✓ The conference will run for two days

2. ✓ Shall I make a note of that

3. ✓ I would rather discuss this in private

4. ✓ You need to read the terms before you sign

5. ✓ He won't reveal his sources

6. ✓ You needn't explain — I fully understand

7. ✓ Would you be available for a call tomorrow

8. ✓ Shall we put this to a vote

Exercise 6 — Word Sort

Prediction / Certain future:

✓ The results ___ be published at the end of the month.

✓ She ___ give up — she's far too determined.

✓ Interest rates ___ remain stable for the rest of the year.

Hypothetical / Polite:

✓ I ___ love the opportunity to visit that part of the world.

✓ ___ you be comfortable presenting to the full board?

✓ I ___ rather not make any commitments until I've spoken to my team.

Offer / Suggestion:

✓ ___ I translate that section for you?

✓ ___ we break for lunch now and reconvene at two?

✓ ___ I arrange for someone to show you around the building?

Necessary / Not necessary:

✓ You ___ to set a new password on your first login.

✓ You ___ bring a printed copy — a digital version is fine.

✓ All new starters ____ to complete the induction before week two.

Exercise 7 — Complete the Conversation

1. A: We need someone to chair the review session. ____ you be willing to take that on?

✓ would

2. B: I'm happy to. When ____ it take place?

✓ will

3. A: Probably next Thursday. ____ I put it in the diary now?

✓ Shall

4. B: Please do. Do attendees ____ to prepare anything in advance?

✓ need

5. A: They ____ prepare anything formal — just bring their thoughts.

✓ needn't

6. B: Good. And I ____ rather keep the session to an hour if possible.

✓ would